++ Valid for broadcast at 2159

Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
It will be a cloudy and unsettled day tomorrow with outbreaks of rain for many.
The rain will be heavy at times, particularly across eastern Scotland leading to some localised flooding. It will also be windy, with gales across southern and western parts of the UK.

Outlook for Sunday and Monday:

It is set to remain unsettled across most parts through Sunday and into Monday, with further rain which will be heavy at times. Once again, eastern parts of Scotland are likely to see further flooding in places. However, it will tend to stay mild for the time of year.
