Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
Tuesday will be a cold and windy day with outbreaks of rain or showers for most places. It will be gloomy in the east of the UK where cloud and rain will persist throughout the day. There will be sleet and snow on higher ground in the north. Scotland and the northwest of England should become drier and brighter later.

Outlook for Wednesday and Thursday:
Generally dry but chilly for Wednesday with plenty of autumn sunshine. Rain or showers will be confined to the southeast of England and will clear during the day. Thursday will see the return of wet and windy weather for all.
