Forecast for Sunday 03 Jan 2021

Weather: The Ochils and southern Perthshire Hills will be dry overnight and in the morning with clear skies then some sunshine. However the Aberdeenshire and Angus Hills will see further snow showers, some of these drifting into northern Perthshire, then in the afternoon, an increasing chance of catching a few over the Ochils and the south of Perthshire as the winds veer round more to the east. Below about 400m the showers will be of rain or sleet though could still be of snow well inland to quite low levels.

Chance of cloud free mountain/hill tops above 800m: 80% in south overnight and in morning otherwise 40% with occasional cloud on the hills especially near showers. Patchy cloud down to 600m at times.

Visibility: Good away from cloud and showers, occasionally poor in snow showers and where wind strong enough to lift and blow snow.
