Forecast for Monday 08 Mar 2021

Weather: Outbreaks of rain and drizzle with sleet and snow over the highest summits early morning. Much of this dying out during the morning with bright spells developing in the afternoon. The best of the brightness from Torridon northwards, but extensive cloud and patchy rain persisting over Knoydart and extending up to Glen Shiel and possibly Skye.

Chance of cloud free mountain/hill tops above 800m: Nil to 30% in the south, becoming 70% in the north in the afternoon.

Visibility: Mostly good or very good lower down, but moderate or poor in rain and drizzle. Poor or very poor at times at height, extensive cloud base 600 to 900m, patches to 300m possible early and later in the day. Cloud becoming more broken in the north in the afternoon, bases near or above the summits.
