Forecast for Wednesday 03 Mar 2021

Weather: A dry day. Some low cloud over the northeast, especially the Sutherland and Easter Ross foothills. Best chance of sunny spells over Skye and Wester Ross. Later in the evening some light rain and hill snow may reach the Sutherland Hills with cloud becoming more extensive

Chance of cloud free mountain/hill tops above 800m: 70%.

Visibility: Away from cloud good, but rather hazy. Cloud amounts uncertain. Bases in northeast around 400m, lower patches, tops around 750m, so greatest chance of poor visibility on the windward side of the hills between these heights.
