Forecast for Sunday 06 Jun 2021

Weather: Cloudy with the odd spot of drizzle in the early hours. The cloud breaking up soon after dawn and then remaining cloud burning off before mid morning. Good sunny spells through the day, especially over western fells and towards the west coast where it should be unbroken. Some scattered clouds bubbling up over central and eastern fells at times. After some evening sunshine, cloud and the odd shower may arrive around midnight.

Chance of cloud free mountain/hill tops above 800m: 10% until shortly after dawn, then rising to more than 95% by mid morning.

Visibility: Patches of poor visibility at lower levels overnight due to drizzle, and very poor visibility above the cloud line which will be down to 450m in places. Once this burns off the remaining very good for the rest of the day.
