Here is the forecast for the United Kingdom for daytime tomorrow:
It will be cloudy with patchy drizzle across much of England and eastern parts of Wales and Scotland at first. The east of England and eastern Scotland will remain grey, with some rain developing across northeast Scotland. Meanwhile it will be a sunny day in the west, and many central parts will become brighter with some warm afternoon sunshine.

Outlook for Friday and Saturday:
Northern and eastern areas will have a rather cloudy day on Friday with some showers. Elsewhere it will be mainly dry with some warm sunshine. Showers are more likely across southern and western areas on Saturday, with brighter conditions developing elsewhere.
